

Shays Rides Again!

Come Strategize to End Corporate Rule

Corporate “rights” undermine our own Constitutional rights as citizens and the health of our democracy.

Explore how we can advance our diverse issues as activists and citizens through education, collaboration, and peaceful direct action.

A brief educational slide presentation will launch our discussion.

Sunday, April 25, 7 pm

Media Education Foundation
Community Room
60 Masonic St.
Northampton, MA

(Facing the front of the old firehouse building, where the Woodstar Cafe is located, the entrance to MEF is on the left side. The Community Room is on the ground floor. We'll post a directional sign inside.)

Sponsored by:

Western Massachusetts Committee on Corporations & Democracy
(413) 585-8173 or (413) 540-0149 - www.ShaysRidesAgain.org

Shays Rebellion, 1786-87 in Western Mass., was the first populist uprising after the American Revolution of poor people and farmers against looming corporate interests in the new country. (More on website.)